Armstrong Teasdale LLP conducts a comprehensive nationwide civil and criminal law practice from its main offices in Missouri, Kansas, Illinois, Washington, DC, New York, NY, Shanghai and Sydney. The firm employs more than 234 lawyers and 27 paralegals practicing in diverse areas of the law. Armstrong Teasdale provides representation in all types of legal matters ranging from conventional, personal and business issues to complex legal matters. Our commitment is to furnish experienced, aggressive and high-quality legal representation that is results-oriented and cost-effective. Our clients are extremely diverse: large and small, public, private, and family-owned, national and international. We also represent charitable, educational not-for-profit, and governmental institutions, as well as numerous individual clients.

Our firm maintains the most advanced technology to fulfill the growing sophistication of our clients' needs. This technology allows us to directly link our offices, enhancing communication and allowing for more economical delivery of services to our clients. Today's market for legal services necessitates our organizing into diverse practice groups in order to efficiently serve the requirements of our clients. The firm consists of two main practice groups, litigation and business services, through which we provide representation to clients.

This is the core of what we strive to do at Armstrong Teasdale:

Know Our Client's Business

Listen to Our Clients to Understand Their Goals and Then Listen Again

Never Confuse Activity With Results. Don't Just Log Hours. Instead, Apply Our Expertise to Solve Problems and Thereby Create Genuine Value

Be More Than A Lawyer; Become A Trusted Advisor
